CORAL COAST, FIJI – Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort has won the 'Best Fijian Property' category tying with the Intercontinental Fiji Golf Resort & Spa from a field of 16 finalists at the annual Hotel Management (HM) Awards.

Now in its 16th year, the prestigious HM Awards, which are overseen by an independent panel of industry judges, recognize hotel and accommodation excellence through Australia, New Zealand, Fiji and select South Pacific nations. More than 720 hospitality industry guests attended the gala event at Sydney's International Convention Centre last Friday night.

Accepting the award, acting Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort General Manager Mr. Russell Blaik said that the latest award underlined the consistently high standards of accommodation, service and cuisine achieved by the resort.

Meanwhile, Pevonia - the global skincare brand of choice for the finest spas in the world, awarded the resort's Bebe Spa Sanctuary the 'Pevonia International Customer Service Excellence' award.

Bebe Spa manager, Ms. Praveena Dewan, said that she believed the award recognition came down to having a combination of passionate therapists, superior product and the spa's uniquely beautiful setting with panoramic ocean views.

Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort has received numerous awards over many years for its overall five-star resort offering, its family-friendly holiday attributes including culturally enriching programs and activities, fine-dining experience at Ivi Restaurant and its exclusive spa services at Bebe Spa Sanctuary.

“These additional awards show that we at Outrigger Fiji are not prepared to rest on our laurels but continue to strive to provide the best possible holiday experience for our guests,” said Mr. Blaik.
