Kani Ka Pila Grille

ABOUT: Sean Na`auao – a regular performer at Kani Ka Pila Grille is a multiple-time Na Hoku Hanohano Award winner, including Island Contemporary Album of the Year for his popular “Fish and Poi” and Song of the Year with “Ka Pilina” by Frank Hewett. His rich music career includes being a founding member of Mana`o Company and the independent record label, Poi Pounder.

The new album, Na Keiki O Hawaii, is a celebration of music diversity as well as a return to the more contemporary side of Hawaiian music which was inspired by Sean's father. The album is dedicated to keiki everywhere with the hope to instill in Hawaii keiki a love of not only their origins and roots, but of the music that inspires them. The album has 10 tracks and a bonus Christmas track, which can be downloaded for free through the purchase of the CD. The album's cover art is by Kanai`a Nakamura.

Free valet parking for working media members.
