HONOLULU – In celebration of this year's National Beer Day (April 7), Waikiki Beachcomber by Outrigger and its anchor restaurant, Maui Brewing Co. unveil the "Beachcomber Brews Bundle" – Waikiki's most refreshing hotel package. Additionally, Maui Brewing Co. is re-launching "Two Tickets to Paradise," a tropical Tart Saison; this limited-time release will be on tap at the Waikiki restaurant and sold in six-packs at local retailers where independently owned Maui Brewing Co. beer can be purchased.

"This National Beer Day is our first public event since the beginning of the pandemic and in the words of President Roosevelt: I think this would be a good time for a beer," said Garrett Marrero, co-founder of Maui Brewing Co., with a smile. "We're excited to be here in celebration of beer and to release a very special one made in the spirit of collaboration with our friends at Crooked Stave, inspired by brewing history and Hawai'i."

The "Beachcomber Brews Bundle" includes up to 25 percent off rooms at Waikiki Beachcomber, waived resort charge and complimentary valet parking ($75+ value), alongside an exclusive package from Maui Brewing Co. with a 32 oz. limited-edition reusable "howler" (half growler) to fill with award-winning craft beverages from Maui Brewing Co., a chef-selected appetizer from the restaurant's scratch kitchen and two pints of your favorite craft beers or non-alcoholic beverages.

Located steps from the beach and adjacent to iconic International Market Place, Maui Brewing Co.'s restaurant inside Waikiki Beachcomber by Outrigger features an expansive open-air interior and family friendly environment that provides plenty of opportunities to soak-in Hawai'i's culinary scene and sip-up its craft beer offerings.

Maui Brewing Co. has been instrumental in growing the craft beer scene in Hawai'i, with 100 percent of its production staying local on the islands. At the Waikiki Beachcomber location, Maui Brewing Co.'s bar is the largest in the state and features more than 35 craft and specialty beers on tap, including Maui Brewing Co. year-round beers and special releases from its ready-to-drink canned cocktail line, Kupu Spirits and Maui Hard Seltzers.

The bright pink, effervescent "Two Tickets to Paradise" utilizes Pilsner, Spelt Malt and Golden Naked Oats, as well as Huell Melon and Pacific Gem hops with sour fermentation. With lemon-citrus, floral and pine aromas, the ingredients harmonize to create a bright and sophisticated seaside refresher. It was originally brewed in 2018 as a collaboration with Crooked Stave of Denver, Colorado.

"We decided to brew a Saison that blended our love for sour fermentation and the use of local ingredients," said Maui Brewing Co. brewmaster, Kim Brisson-Lutz. "We enjoy collaborating with breweries that are innovative and independent. We are huge fans of Crooked Stave and the beer they produce." The Saison has an ABV (Alcohol by Volume) of 4.8 percent and 20 IBUs (International Business Units), creating what Brisson-Lutz described as having a "very vibrant acidity from the hibiscus and lime, super refreshing, and crushable."
