

Waikiki Beach Walk Open Market Returns on Monday, January 3

Popular weekly attraction resumes Mondays on the Plaza fronting Lewers Street

HONOLULU (December 22, 2021) – Waikiki Beach Walk, the vibrant shopping, dining and entertainment district at Lewers Street and Kalakaua Avenue, has announced the return of Waikiki Beach Walk Open Market on Mondays, beginning January 3 from 4 to 8 p.m.

The lively experience provides an eco-friendly way to support local businesses, while discovering truly one-of-a-kind souvenirs, handmade art, and snacks to take home for yourself or as a gift to someone special. Among the local vendors returning to Waikiki Beach Walk Open Market:

- Oahu Tiki showcases sculptures with significant meanings that represent important values, such as family and perseverance. Check out the sculptures' intense emotional expressions or select from wooden carvings of notable Hawaiian cultural symbols, like the Hawaiian fishhook and the sea turtle.
- Mo'o Hawaii offers colorful mini surfboards that can be personalized with names, slogans and other designs.
- Hilo Soap Company specializes in vegan bath and body products that are hand-crafted in small batches on Hawaii Island to ensure quality and freshness.

In addition to its craft and gift vendors, Waikiki Beach Walk Open Market will offer prepared foods, cut fruit and smoothies, making this an ideal and festive pau hana activity.

Hawaiian Music and Cultural Programming in 2022

Waikiki Beach Walk will continue to host an amazing array of complimentary music and cultural programming during 2022. (All performances are weather permitting.)
