PHUKET, THAILAND – The Outrigger Surin Beach Resort in Phuket opened at the end of December and is offering a special value-added 'sandbox' offer, following changes that came into effect January 11.

Destination Phuket is one of four - Phuket, Samui, Krabi and Phangnga - locations in Thailand where vaccinated guests can arrive and spend seven days at leisure exploring a beach destination under the Thai Government's 'sandbox' promotion. After seven days and a negative test, guests can travel to other places in the country. Check full sandbox conditions [HERE.]

To support the sandbox initiative, the newly opened 60-key Outrigger Surin Beach Resort, adjacent to idyllic Surin Beach, is offering very special rates from $130 per night for a Surin Studio Room for travel until February 28, 2022. For travel March 1 to April 17, a super-saver rate of $105 is available.

Both rates include breakfast for two, return airport transfers, $45 food and beverage credit per stay, 20% off laundry and flexible check-in/out. A minimum seven-night stay is required.

Announcing the new sandbox offer, Tony Pedroni, Outrigger area general manager for Thailand said, "I believe our wonderful new-look boutique resort beside beautiful Surin Beach will be the perfect antidote to banish the winter blues and help guests unwind after a challenging two years for everyone."

Outrigger Surin Beach Resort is 30 minutes from Phuket airport. It is conveniently located for explorations of all of the island's west coast beaches, Phuket town and nature retreats such as the Khao Phra Taew forest reserve.

The resort itself features the surf-inspired Nalu Bar + Grill, two swimming pools and a fitness studio.

Outrigger will also open the Outrigger Khao Lak Beach Resort in Thailand in early February 2022 and Outrigger Koh Samui Beach Resort in March.
