KOH SAMUI, THAILAND – The Outrigger Koh Samui Beach Resort officially opened today with a group from Germany as its first guests. The fully renovated resort opened with 44 premium category rooms, with the remaining 102 superior rooms to open in November 2022.

Guests checking in from August 1 can enjoy the resort's main lifestyle features, which are ideal for families, including the beachfront Edgewater beach club with three pool zones and a kids' water slide. Guests can also enjoy the Outrigger's signature Voyager 47 Club Lounge, the Coral Kids Club and game room, a fully equipped fitness center and redesigned main lobby area.

Premium category rooms include 12 Club Garden rooms (614 square feet), 12 Lamai Garden Suites (753 square feet) and 20 Premier Lamai Garden Suites (861 square feet).

Depending on category, premium rooms feature spacious living quarters separate from the rest of the room, a four-poster bed, relaxing tropical decor and a luxurious marble bathroom with separate shower and bathtub.

All guests in premium rooms have exclusive Voyager 47 Club Lounge access with all-day non-alcoholic drinks, afternoon snacks and evening cocktails with the Chef's tasting plate.

Every room in the resort has a balcony, French-style balcony or terrace. Each room blends contemporary design with soft-colonial accents.

"We are really excited by the whole Edgewater family beach club concept, which is the first of its kind in this part of the island," said the resort's general manager, Leah Matters. "With the Voyager 47 Club and a colonial beach house feel throughout the property, Outrigger has created a truly memorable and unique beach holiday experience," she said.

Outrigger took over the resort in July 2021. The redesign was led by Bangkok-based architectural firm and longstanding Outrigger design partner, Santhaya + Associates.

In November, an additional 102 superior rooms, an all-day dining restaurant and a fourth swimming pool will open. Each superior room will offer French doors opening onto a private balcony overlooking the resort gardens or swimming pool.

Outrigger has opened four properties in Asia in the last six months: the Outrigger Koh Samui Beach Resort, the Outrigger Khao Lak Beach Resort, the Outrigger Surin Beach Resort in Phuket and the Outrigger Maldives Maafushivaru Resort.

Outrigger has the aim of becoming the "Premier Beach Resort Company in the World."
