KOH SAMUI, THAILAND – On November 26, Outrigger Koh Samui Beach Resort completed its opening by unveiling its final complement of 102 rooms. The finishing phase comprised elegant colonial-style rooms with balconies, including 32 interconnecting pairs of rooms designed for families and small groups of friends.

With the full opening of the resort in Koh Samui, Outrigger Thailand now has a total of three resorts operational in the region: at Koh Samui, Khao Lak and Phuket.

Outrigger Koh Samui's all-day dining restaurant, Mala Kitchen, and an additional courtyard swimming pool were also unveiled in the final phase. The 146-room and suite property now has two restaurants, a Coral Kids club, a games room, the Voyager 47 Club lounge, a fitness center, three massage salas and four swimming pools, one with a children's waterslide adjacent to the beach.

"We have created a superlative beach holiday setting for families and couples to experience," said Leah Matters, the resort's general manager. "Our resort's leisure facilities, extensive adult and children activities programs and dining options are ideal for families with children of all ages. Our Edgewater beach club, which is already proving popular in the destination, will soon welcome an international DJ five nights a week along with Koh Samui's famous beach fire show."

Based on its first seven reviews on TripAdvisor, Outrigger Koh Samui already has a 5.0 "excellent" rating.

Like all Outrigger properties, live music – from either a DJ or a band – will be a key feature at the resort, as well as private romantic dining and vow renewal options for couples.

Guests so far have hailed primarily from the UK, Germany, Australia and Israel.

Apart from day trips to the spectacular Angthong marine national park and assorted waterfalls around the island, visits to Haven Elephant sanctuary for rescued elephants are also proving popular.

Outrigger Koh Samui Beach Resort is putting its new facilities to good use this Christmas and New Year. The resort has arranged festive dining, drinks, entertainment and fun for families and couples on December 24, 25 and 31. The full festive program details are here.
