HONOLULU – The OUTRIGGER Waikīkī Paradise Hotel is set to host The Art + Flea Market, a vibrant event that brings together Hawai'i's creative community. This two-day market on May 17 and 18, 2025, from 11AM-3PM, will showcase an eclectic collection of local artists, artisans, food vendors and DJs, offering an unforgettable experience of shopping, music and culture just steps away from the iconic Waikīkī shoreline. As part of OUTRIGGER Resorts & Hotels' ongoing commitment to championing art and culture throughout its portfolio, the Art + Flea Market reflects the brand's dedication to celebrating and uplifting local creatives and their crafts.

"Art + Flea is more than just a market, it's a place where creativity and community collide," said Aly Ishikuni-Sasaki, Co-founder & Director of Art + Flea. "We are grateful to partner with OUTRIGGER Waikīkī Paradise Hotel, providing a platform for our local makers and musicians to thrive and reach a broader audience."

Art + Flea, founded by Aly Ishikuni and Nicole Franco in 2010, has become an outlet for Hawai'i's independent artists and entrepreneurs to share their talents and connect with the community. With more than 60 creatives rotating through its monthly events, Art + Flea highlights the best in Hawai'i-made art, fashion, vintage, handmade goods and music.
