OUTRIGGER Hospitality Group Names Jason Takaki General Manager of Napili Shores Maui by OUTRIGGER

HONOLULU – OUTRIGGER Hospitality Group today announced the appointment of Jason Takaki as General Manager of Napili Shores Maui by OUTRIGGER.

Takaki will be responsible for overseeing AOA and property rental operations, ensuring the property and its public areas are well-maintained. He will also work closely with the Rental Pool to optimize revenue and uphold high unit quality standards.

An accomplished hospitality professional with more than eight years of management and training experience, Takaki brings expertise in operations, staff development, safety and security, guest services and departmental leadership.

“Jason’s experience in hospitality operations, team leadership and guest service will be a strong asset at Napili Shores,” said Carly Clement, Vice President, Hawai’i Vacation Condos by OUTRIGGER. “His understanding of AOA and rental program management will ensure continued operational excellence and provide an elevated experience for both guests and owners.”

Takaki most recently served as Director of Security at the AOA for The Whaler on Kā’anapali Beach and previously held leadership roles in operations and rooms division management. As General Manager, he will lead on-site departments, maintain strong communication with OUTRIGGER’s corporate office and ensure excellence in service quality, guest satisfaction, profitability, facility upkeep and workplace culture in alignment with OUTRIGGER standards.
