Cirque du Soleil 'Auana Announces Tickets on Sale for Performances Now Through 2026

HONOLULU – Cirque du Soleil announced today that tickets for its Hawai'i-based production 'Auana are now on sale for performances scheduled through the end of 2026.

'Auana, the first-ever resident Cirque du Soleil show in Hawai'i and winner of HONOLULU Magazine's Best New Attraction award, has solidified its place as a cultural and artistic landmark. From its inception to its historic world premiere, the production has seamlessly fused Cirque's iconic artistry with Hawai'i's rich cultural heritage, offering audiences a transcendent journey through the stories, traditions and beauty of the islands. Performed exclusively at the custom-designed OUTRIGGER Theater at the OUTRIGGER Waikiki Beachcomber Hotel, the production offers world-class acrobatics, comedy, mesmerizing hula, and captivating music in a lively celebration of Hawai'i.

"We invite locals and visitors alike to experience how 'Auana honors the stories and culture of our people through the artistic lens of Cirque du Soleil," said Dr. Aaron J Salā, cultural creative producer of 'Auana. "This production is not just entertainment. It is a testament to the living and vibrant culture of our Hawai'i."

To celebrate the launch of 2026 tickets, guests who book a stay at any OUTRIGGER property can enjoy 10% off tickets to 'Auana. Click here to view special resort rates and package deals. Please note: show tickets must be purchased separately to receive the discount.

Other offers extending into 2026 include the kama'āina discount, which gives local residents up to 30% off tickets, and the Aloha Friday offer, where locals can receive a free keiki (child) ticket with the purchase of an adult ticket for Friday performances. Additionally, the Family Pack offer, available to all guests, provides up to 15% off when purchasing a minimum of four tickets, including at least one adult and one child. To redeem, visit cirquedusoleil.com/auana and view all current offers under the Deals tab.
