HONOLULU - Following its much-anticipated transformation and grand reopening on June 22, 2026, OUTRIGGER Kau‘i Beach Resort & Spa is inviting travelers to discover the resort's reimagined guest experience with a new limited-time offer that delivers more than $100 in daily value while exploring the Garden Isle.

Guests who book directly can enjoy:

- $50 daily food credit at Ocean House by Roy Yamaguchi or Driftwood Bar & Grille
- Waived daily resort charge (a $35+ daily value)
- Complimentary daily self-parking (a $29+ daily value)

Set on 25 oceanfront acres along a secluded two-mile stretch of Nukoli‘i Beach, the resort offers an authentic Kau‘i experience inspired by the island's culture and natural beauty. Conveniently located just 10 minutes from Līhu‘e Airport and centrally positioned between Kaua‘i's North and South Shores, OUTRIGGER serves as an ideal home base for exploring waterfalls, hiking trails, beaches and cultural landmarks.

"Our transformation was designed to create a deeper connection between our guests and the island of Kaua‘i," said Chris San Nicolas, General Manager at OUTRIGGER Kaua‘i. "From our wide-open lobby and bar area that look out to the ocean to the locally inspired cuisine to our meaningful cultural experiences and ocean stewardship programs, every aspect of the resort reflects our commitment to helping travelers experience the destination in an authentic and memorable way."

At the heart of the transformed resort is Ocean House by Roy Yamaguchi, where internationally acclaimed Chef Roy Yamaguchi and Executive Chef Samuel Taganeca showcase Hawai'i Regional Cuisine through shore-to-table dishes inspired by Kaua'i's farmers, ranchers and fishermen. Guests can also enjoy casual beachfront dining and handcrafted cocktails at Driftwood Bar & Grille.

Throughout the resort, an inspiring collection of original works by eight local artists further brings Kaua'i's stories to life. Drawing inspiration from the Hawaiian legends of Pele, the goddess of fire, and the ocean voyages of Kawelo Lei Makua, the curated collection explores the powerful relationship between fire and water through paintings, sculpture, textiles, and mixed-media installations crafted from locally sourced, sustainable materials. From handcrafted kapa and charred wood sculptures to cyanotype botanicals and artwork created from marine debris collected along Kaua'i's shores, each piece celebrates the island's landscapes, traditions and enduring connection to land and sea, creating an immersive sense of place for every guest.

Beyond its accommodations, art and culinary offerings, the resort immerses guests in the traditions of Kaua'i through complimentary cultural programming, including the weekly E Ala E sunrise ceremony, E Komo Mai Aloha Friday celebration featuring Hawaiian music and Polynesian dance, beachfront sunrise yoga and the Mālama Nukoli'i Beach Cleanup program, which encourages visitors to help care for the island's shoreline.

Families will also enjoy one of Kaua'i's premier aquatic playgrounds, featuring two swimming pools, a cascading waterfall, a 75-foot waterslide, whirlpool spa and spacious areas for relaxation under the Hawaiian sun.

Recognized with a 2026 Tripadvisor Travelers' Choice Award, OUTRIGGER Kaua'i Beach Resort & Spa continues to earn praise for its exceptional hospitality, authentic cultural experiences and tranquil beachfront setting.

The exclusive direct-booking offer is available for a limited time. For more information or to book a stay, visit OUTRIGGER Kaua'i Beach Resort & Spa.
