OUTRIGGER Surin Beach Resort Offers an Intimate Take on Phuket

The 60-room surf-inspired resort offers secluded suites with pool access and private plunge pools plus couples' treatment rooms at Serenity Massage and direct access to Surin Beach's golden sands

PHUKET, THAILAND – In a destination known for expansive beachfront resorts, OUTRIGGER Surin Beach Resort offers a more intimate way to experience Phuket. With just 60 rooms and suites, the surf-inspired resort pairs a smaller-scale setting with private accommodations, personalized service and experiences well suited to couples looking to slow down, reconnect and discover Phuket together.

Deluxe Pool Access rooms open directly onto one of two swimming pools, while Plunge Pool Suites pair a private plunge pool with a secluded garden terrace for added privacy. For couples looking for more space to settle in, the two-level Grand Surin Suite separates a spacious living area downstairs from the master bedroom and bath above, creating room to spend time together or retreat to their own space.

Just a three-minute walk from Surin Beach, ocean lovers can arrange paddleboard and surfboard rentals through the resort's local partners or join OUTRIGGER Zone's beach cleanup initiatives to help maintain the pristine shores and ocean the property calls home. The resort is Green Key certified, part of OUTRIGGER's broader commitment to protecting the coastlines. Those who'd rather stay close can unwind at either of the two pools, the fitness studio, or Serenity Massages dedicated couples' treatment room.

Dining centers around Nalu Bar and Grill -- named for the Hawaiian word for "wave," a nod to OUTRIGGER's island roots -- where the resort's surf-inspired menu serves grilled seafood and meats alongside a craft cocktail program from the resident mixologist. Nalu Loft Bar provides a quieter setting for sunset views over Phuket, while in-room dining allows guests to enjoy a meal in the privacy of their own suite.

For couples looking to experience Phuket beyond the beach, OUTRIGGER DISCOVERY offers a farm-to-table experience that begins with a tuk-tuk ride to a local farmers market. Guests select ingredients before returning to the resort for a guided cooking class and shared meal, turning a resort stay into an experience rooted in the destination.

“Our boutique size allows our hosts to get to know our guests and personalize the experience around what matters to them,” says Pongsak Thongwarothai, General Manager of OUTRIGGER Surin Beach Resort. “Some guests want to spend their days between the beach and pools, while others want to explore Phuket. We can help with the details, whether that's arranging a surfboard, coordinating a local experience, organizing private dining or simply giving guests the space to enjoy their time together.”

The resort's intimate scale and relaxed atmosphere reflect the character of Surin, where colorful design, easygoing surf culture and proximity to the beach come together. Beyond the resort, cafés and restaurants in Surin village invite guests to explore the neighborhood, while the Andaman Sea provides a natural backdrop for sunset drinks and unhurried evenings.

For couples ready to settle in, the resort's “Suite Life” promo is offering extra value to stays in its premium room types: the Surin Studio Balcony, Plunge Pool Suite and Grand Surin Suite. Guests who book at least five nights with promo code UPGRADE will enjoy daily breakfast, evening cocktails, a daily THB 1,000 resort credit and 30-minute massage.

OUTRIGGER Surin Beach Resort is part of the brand's growing presence in Thailand, joining OUTRIGGER Khao Lak Beach Resort, OUTRIGGER Koh Samui Beach Resort and the newly added OUTRIGGER Phi Phi Island Resort. The four resorts offer distinct experiences across Thailand's coastline while reflecting OUTRIGGER's focus on beach destinations and island-inspired hospitality.
